President's Message September 13, 2018

Fellow Sojourners, Family and Friends

As most of you know by now, our August meeting was canceled because our meeting room was given to another group. This is the second time this has happened in less than a year, and brings into serious question whether we are actually welcome at Pasta House. Alternate locations are being considered, and we should have some options to recommend within a month or two. Also being considered is whether Thursday is the ideal date for our meetings, since so many other Masonic organizations also meet on Thursdays.

Your input is welcomed. We will be considering these options when we meet in September, and probably during subsequent meetings as well. I hope to see you there.

Fraternally, Dave Fritchey, President
Saint Louis Chapter 22

Commander's Message

Brethren:

We lost a very dear Hero, Sojourner and Brother last month with the passing of MWB Bill Soutiea. If you did not know Bill, you missed the fellowship of a truly great man. We will miss having him at our monthly meetings.

We have two flag presentations for September. First we have a presentation at the George Washington Lodge # 9, Officer Installation at 1 PM on Saturday, September 15th. Then we have the flag presentation at the opening of Grand Lodge on Monday morning, September 24th, in Columbia.

We are still looking for anyone interested in donating their Colonial Uniforms. If you have a uniform that you are willing to donate, please call Dennis or myself and we will arrange to pick up that uniform.

Looking forward to seeing you at the Sojourner's meeting.

Terry Shofner, Commander
Albert Pike Heroes of 76 Camp

me his email address and we have had meaningful conversation on this not happening again. I thanked John for his kind attention and co-operation on the matter and he assured me it won't happen again.

We should have two candidates at our meeting on the 13th for initiation into the Chapter.

Dennis E. Fetter, Secretary

Meeting minutes of August, 2018

My fellow Sojourners last month was a disaster for the Chapter, in our meeting place and time.

There have been many phone calls and conversations with the Pasta House in reference to why our spot was given to another group for dinner. The corporate managers have been in contact thanks to a letter from our President and phone calls. The funny part is that they claimed not to have a contact number for the Chapter, BUT when the corporate manager contacted us he called on my cell phone which was not given in any letter or previous conversation and I ask him where he got the number and surprisingly it was at the restaurant. The manager of the restaurant gave
